

Communication for Land Negotiations!

Past

Our Tupuna adhered to tikanga and kawa, viewing this as paramount to communication.

These forms can be identified in informal and formal settings ie.. Kanohi ki te kanohi, hui, karakia, powhiri, whaikorero, waiata, pakiwaitara, whakapapa, wananga, tamoko, kapa haka...

Present

Technology has evolved, with new forms of how we communicate with each other. ie.. the internet, cell phones and satellite providing access to the universe instantly

Objectives

- Ensure effective and efficient communication for our Land negotiations
- Implement effective communication systems to assist Whanganui Iwi to achieve a Deed of settlement
- Ensure our whanau/hapu/Iwi are informed
- Encourage and support open communication and regular input and feedback from whanau, hapu and Iwi.
